THE CAMP STAFF

Camp director Brian Denis recently concluded his 16th season as Head Coach for both the Boy's and Girl's tennis teams at Hollidaysburg Area High School. In his tenure, his programs have produced state championship in singles and doubles, and numerous District Champions. He has numerous years of experience teaching tennis to young people, and holds a rank of "Professional" within the Professional Tennis Registry (PTR), the World's largest tennis teaching organization. Denis is also the Head Professional and Tennis Director at the Summit Tennis and Athletic Club. He recently was selected by the United State's Tennis Association as it's Central Pennsylvania "Teaching Professional of the Year".

Amanda (Faris) Denis has been around the sport of tennis since she could hold a tennis racquet. Her father founded both the boy's and girl's programs at Altoona, and passed along much of his tennis knowledge to her. She has also been a certified tennis teaching professional through the PTR for over 19 years, making her one of the area's only certified female teaching pros. She also founded the Central Blair Park and Recreation Tennis Program 18 years ago. Amanda has acted as the Director of Tennis at the Summit Tennis and Athletic Club for the last eleven years.

Coach Denis will also rely on several college and varsity players who have years of playing and teaching experience to help with the instruction of the youngsters. The Golden Tiger Tennis program is where children get their start towards becoming future champions.
